

See the Facts: PragerU and YouTube

In 2017, Prager University sued YouTube for restricting the audience of some of their "PragerU" videos on the platform, alleging anti-conservative bias.

But how does this accusation stand up to the numbers?

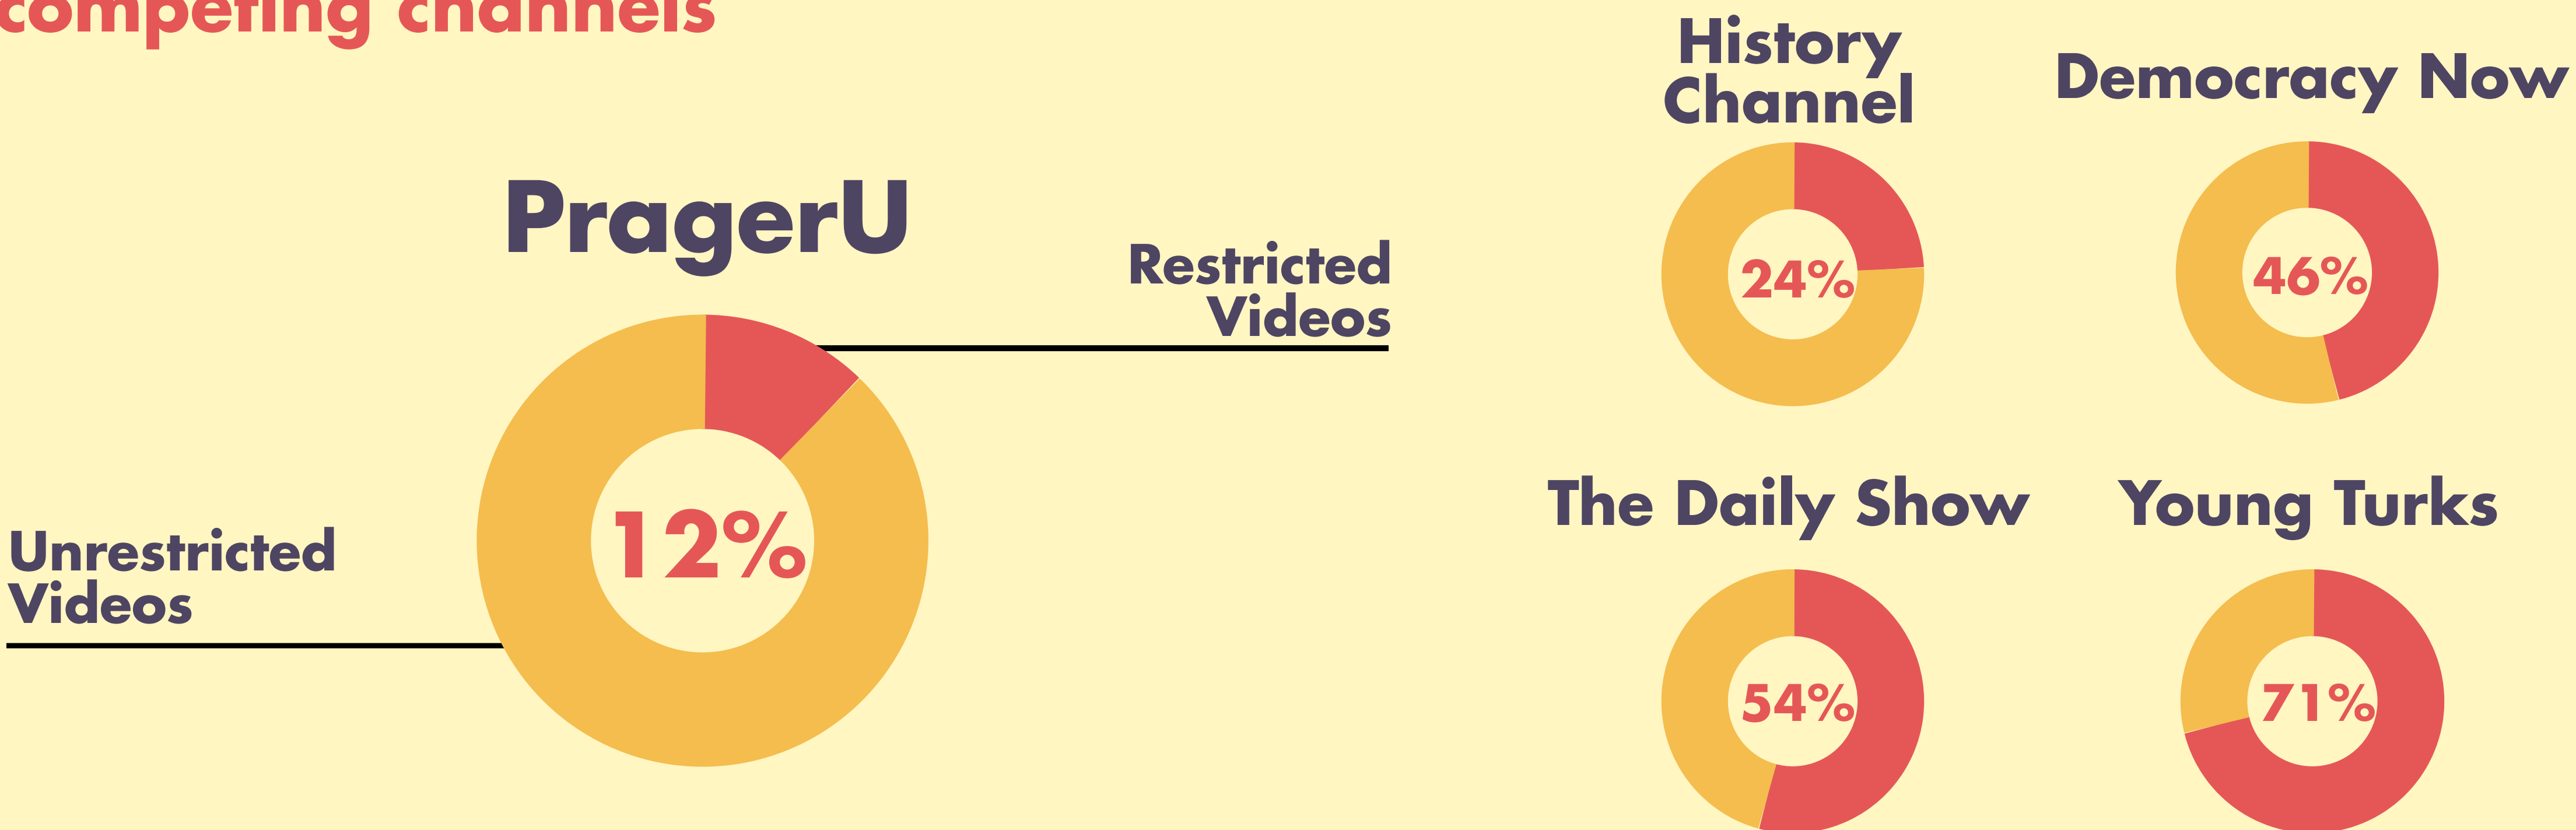

YouTube rates videos as Teen or Mature if the content includes:

YouTube users can opt-in to "restricted mode" so that videos rated as Teen or Mature do not show.

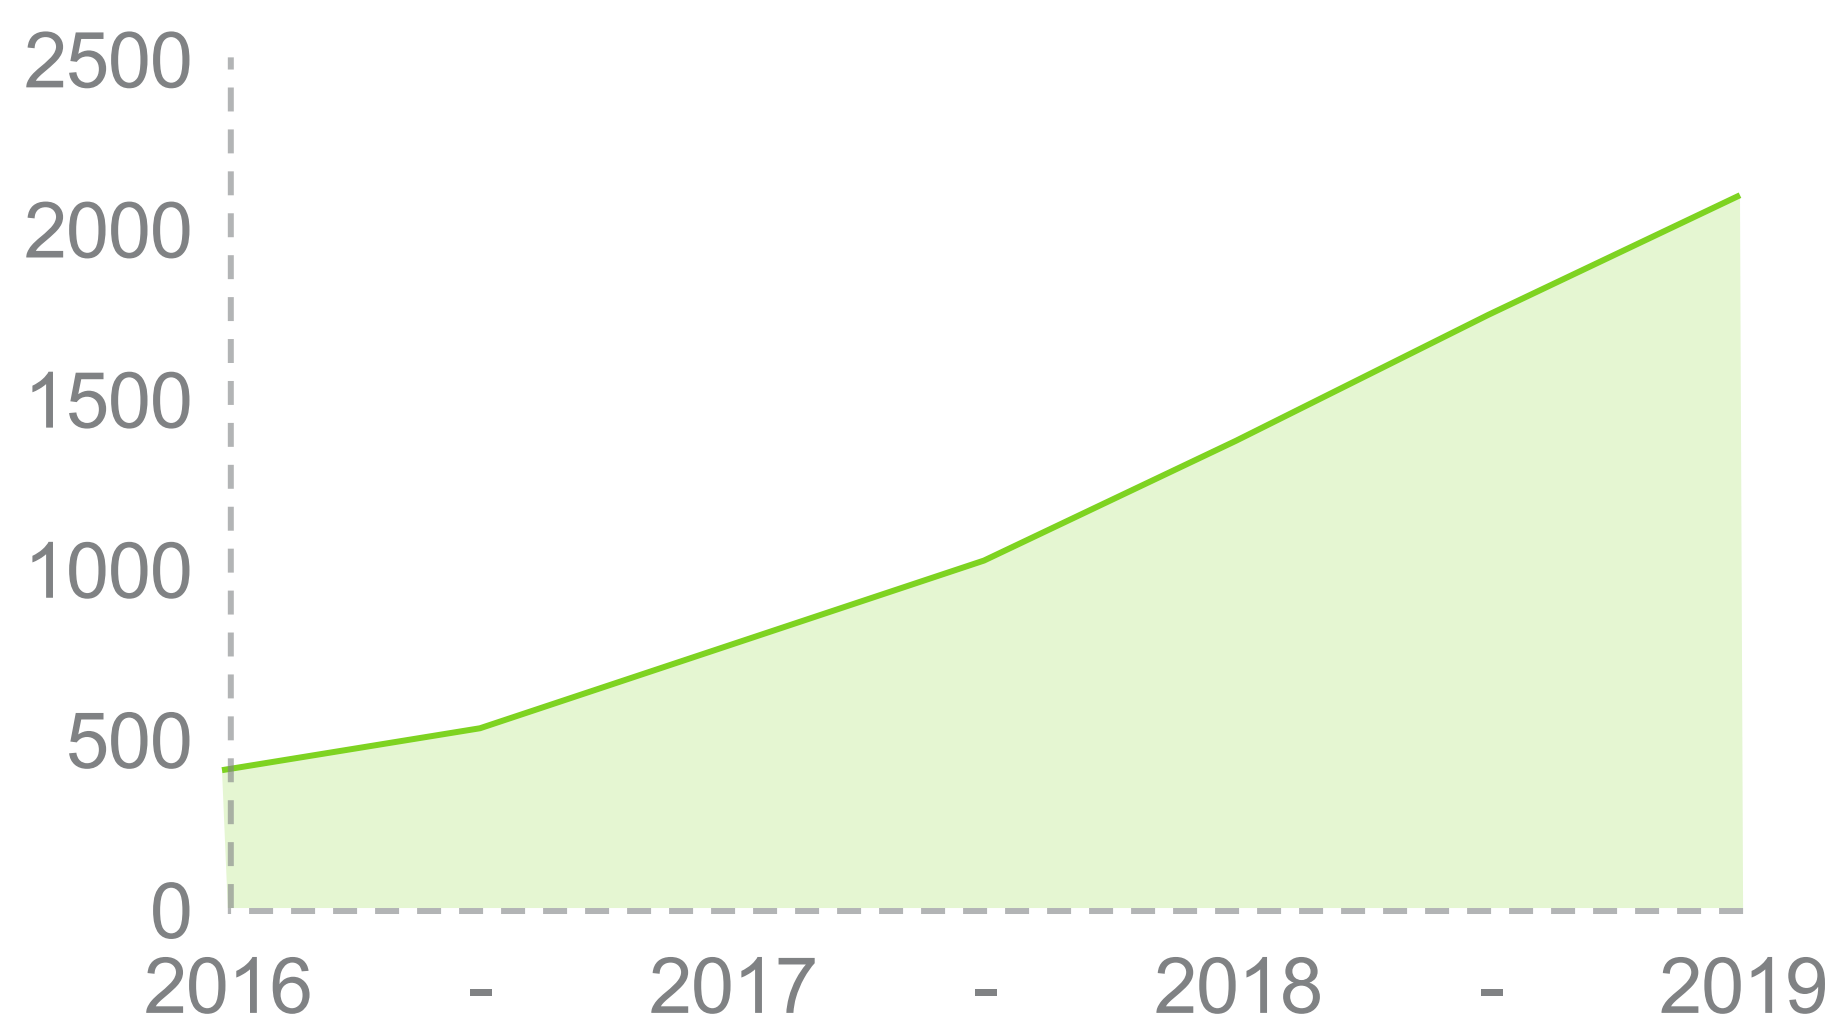

About 1.5% of YouTube users are opted-in to "restricted mode."

PragerU videos are more available on YouTube than videos made by competing channels
