

FTC Chair Khan is Anti-Conservative

Chair Lina Khan is using the power of the FTC to advance progressive goals.

KHAN USING ANTITRUST TO PUSH DEI

"We can use antitrust law today to promote a more equitable and inclusive economy."

2022 interview between Khan and The Washington Post

"Building a diverse and inclusive workforce is essential to ensuring that the FTC can effectively serve the American public."

Khan's statement on the FTC's DEI Strategic Plan, October 2021

KHAN WORKING WITH SOCIALISTS

In 2022, Chair Khan spoke at a conference where the goal was to:

"TEACH ATTENDEES HOW TO ADVANCE THE GOALS OF SOCIALISM."

Other topics at the event included:

"mediating tensions between capitalist order and democratic self-rule"

"intersectional exploitation"

"market supremacy and racial, gender, and economic injustice."

A conference hosted by the Economic Security Project and the Law and Political Economy Project of Yale University

KHAN DISREGARDING REPUBLICAN OVERSIGHT

"Biden FTC's pursuit of a partisan agenda that expands agency power and discards decades of experience to the detriment of the American people." a 2023 letter written to Chair Khan by a group led by Rep. Nathaniel Moran

"An agency beset by dysfunction and chaos stemming from the poor leadership and ideological bullying of [Chair Khan] and her leadership staff."

House Judiciary Committee Chair Jim Jordan's comments on an investigation his staff conducted about Chair Khan in February 2024: